

School Nutrition Team Announces School Breakfast Meal Pattern Workshops

The Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010 (HHFKA) marked the most comprehensive changes to school nutrition in more than a generation. July 1, 2013 is the next milestone as it is the date most changes to the School Breakfast Program go into effect. Join the School Nutrition Team for an overview of the breakfast changes that are in effect for the 2013-14 School Year. Interactive breakout sessions will provide insights to successful breakfast menu planning and will help you gain a better understanding of Offer versus Serve (OVS) as it pertains to school breakfast. Training on the new breakfast requirements will also be available during the School Nutrition Skills Development Courses being offered in July and August at locations across the state (more information coming in May).
